

Costs and booking

Charges for Easter Settlement include accommodation with full board from Friday evening meal until Monday 2.00pm (3 nights) or Tuesday breakfast (4 nights). A substantial subsidy from Quakers in Yorkshire (QiY) drastically reduces costs for children and young people and covers the expenses of facilitators.

QiY welcomes donations towards its work.

What is Easter Settlement?

Easter Settlement provides an opportunity for us to strengthen our spiritual base as part of a wider Quaker family. The weekend programme is a mixture of reflection, discussion, worship and fun. Single people and families, those new to the Society of Friends and established Settlers are all made welcome.

What is this year's theme all about?

“What are the changes which are needed to the systemic injustice and inequality that we see in society? We need to go deeper to find the roots of our social ills, and how we might uproot the powers that maintain them.”
Yearly Meeting 2015, Minute 36

Do you feel that our economic system is broken but you're not sure how it could be different? Do you find economics difficult to talk about?

We will be exploring what a 'new economy' founded on Quaker values might look like and how to get there. There will be space to discuss the big questions but also tips for taking practical action. The sessions will be suitable for all, whether you've already taken part in a New Economy reading group or feel you know nothing at all about the economy.

What else happens at Easter Settlement?

A typical day at Easter Settlement includes sessions or workshops in the mornings and early evenings. In the afternoons free time gives the chance to explore the area, independently or on guided walks, to share skills and interests, to continue discussions or to relax, read or sleep. After the evening meal we have social time and a variety of activities will be on offer. There are also poetry reading groups, Tai Chi, hymn singing and an Easter Egg Hunt for the younger ones.

Do not leave your dog alone in the bedroom; a charge will be made for any damage caused.

Dogs are not allowed in the public rooms or in the dining rooms. And we ask you to use a poop scoop in the gardens.
