- 14.15 Yorkshire Friends Holiday School Holiday School staff, students and helpers will share with us their experiences from the 2018 event.
- 15.00 West Yorkshire Churches Together (WYCT) Rachel Muers represents us on this body and we look forward to hearing from her something of its current issues and challenges.
- 15.30 Mill Hill Unitarian Chapel Jo James is minister to the Unitarian congregation in whose historical premises we meet today. We look forward to hearing about the chapel and its work.
- 16.00 Tea and departures. We thank Leeds Friends for their hospitality and all the arrangements for the day.

Signing in

Please sign the attendance list when you arrive. Name labels will be available. If you have a badge, please bring it and remember to wear it.

Children

Ilkley Local Meeting will provide childcare at this meeting of Quakers in Yorkshire. If you are planning to bring children, please could you let Helen Ford know the age of your child(ren) by Monday 7 January. Helen can be contacted on 07534 682609 or on ford.helen@outlook.com

This will enable us to plan suitable activities for the children who are coming, and ensure we have enough helpers.

If she doesn't receive information by 7 January, Helen will assume no children are attending the meeting.

Bookstall

There will be a bookstall selling and distributing meeting copies of Leeds Friends' new publication before the meeting starts and at lunchtime. Bring purses and wallets!

Directions to Mill Hill Chapel

Mill Hill Chapel is on the east side of City Square in Leeds. Most convenient access is by train. Cross the road where taxis and buses exit the station concourse, and heading towards Park Row, you will find the chapel on the right hand side of the Square.
