

Quakers in Yorkshire Easter Settlement 2020

“Ourselves, Our World”

James and Ruth McCarthy

What is an adequate Quaker response to a world in turmoil? How do the crises that beset us shape our thoughts and feelings, and what does this mean for our behaviour as Quakers?

Using the work of Joanna Macy we will look at how we can create space to examine our feelings with compassion, reconnect with others, find strengths that may have been hidden from us, and think together about possible futures. We will build a sense of community and new perspectives.

James and Ruth McCarthy are members of York area meeting. They are both active running workshops with the Kindlers, and are currently writing a book about listening.

Easter Settlement is a gathering for Friends of all ages
