

Link Group; Yorkshire.

Aims

Link group aims to gather young people across Yorkshire (and occasionally beyond) regularly to in person and online events.

Link group will;

- Be distinctively Quaker
- Be attractive, welcoming and inclusive
- Be built on friendship (big and small “F”)

Programme

Link group will happen regularly as a single night residential across the Yorkshire Region and an occasional online group.

The role of volunteers

- Relationships: All volunteers should strive to get alongside young people at the event and support them to achieve and grow through the experience.
- Responsibility: All volunteers should model appropriate behaviour, encouraging young people to abide by the agreed boundaries.
- Facilitation: Volunteers will contribute to the programme in ways to be agreed at the planning meeting before the event; this may include leading sessions, worship, games or discussions.

Jo the Youth Development Worker

Holds ultimate responsibility for safety and smooth running at link group and will be the main organiser, data officer, first aider and designated safeguarding lead for link group events. Lucky him.

Training and expenses

Money can be found for most sensible and justifiable things. Volunteers should feel well-resourced in the situations they find themselves in. All training requests will be seriously considered. Those wishing to have out of pocket expenses associated with the event reimbursed will be satisfied.
