

Quakers in Yorkshire

Role Description

Title of Role : Member of Quakers in Yorkshire Arrangements Committee

Length of term of service :

3 years (with possible renewal for second term)

(If there is a need to terminate early please inform QiY Clerk in writing)

What the role entails :

The task of the QiY Arrangements Committee is to plan the dates, venues, and topics for the Quarterly Meetings of Quakers in Yorkshire.

The Committee is made up of one member from each of the 7 Area Meetings plus the Clerks of Quakers in Yorkshire (ex-officio). The Committee is convened by one of the Clerks .

Desirable skills, experience, and availability of training:

General interest in and support for th activities of Quakers in Yorkshire.

Attendance at some of the Quarterly Meetings of Quakers in Yorkshire

Frequency of meetings and the time commitment envisaged:

The Committee normally meets online three times a year (February, May and September) on a Wednesday evening.

Email correspondence is used at other times, but not a lot.

The time commitment is low.

To find out more:

Talk to one of the current members or one of the Clerks of QiY.

REVIEWED and UPDATED: 14 April 2026