

QUAKERS in YORKSHIRE

Role Description

Title of role: Member of Nominations Committee

Length of term of service: 3 years, renewable.
(if there is a need to terminate early please inform QiY Clerk in writing)

Nominating and appointing bodies:

Each of the seven area meetings comprising Quakers in Yorkshire nominates 2 Friends to serve on the Nominations Committee. The nomination normally comes via the Area Meeting Nominations Committee.
Formal appointment is made by Quakers in Yorkshire.

What the role entails:

Being part of the team which finds names of Friends to serve on the various bodies for which QiY is responsible:

- Officers of QiY (Clerks, Clerk of Trustees, Treasurer).
- Members of QiY groups (Under 19s Coordinating Group, Junior Holidays, Easter Settlement).
- Governors of Bootham School, The Mount School, Breckenbrough School (in conjunction with the Schools).
- Trustees of Glenthorne Quaker Guest House.
- A few other regional roles.

Desirable skills, experience and availability of training:

Experience of being on a local meeting, or area meeting, nominations committee.
Ability to sensitively assess whether the gifts of a Friend are right for the role.
Experience of Quaker business methods at any level.

Frequency of meetings and the time commitment envisaged:

The Committee meets at least three times a year – currently using Zoom at times to suit members.

The work of finding names is normally done by two members working together to bring names forward.
